

Hard Life

Saltwound

This life is a fucking joke
When you wake up to die everyday
I sliced my fucking arms
Til no flesh remained

This life is a fucking joke
When you wake up to die everyday
I'll stay miserable
It's all that I've known anyway
I push everyone away
To isolate myself with my pain
Submersed in my own hell
There's no other way
This feeling never fades
Chains rust but never change
Just another fucking day in my
Hard life

Show me what is the worth in this life
Born to suffer everyday until you die
Fuck breaking my back to survive
In a world that never gave a fuck about me

This annihilation
Burns down my fucking throat
Suffocated by life
And all the dark thoughts in my head
This silence will be my last eulogy
A nightmare from which I will never awake

This is my hard life
This is my hard fucking life
