

In Spite Of You

Saltwound

I've had enough of your bullshit
I'm sick and tired of seeing your face
Took me two fucking years to realize
That all you ever fucking did was leech off
The name we made
You will learn your lesson
When I smash your shit-eating head in Fuck everything you put your name to Cause everything we ever did was Always in spite of you

Your words are fucking cheap
But the work that you never did will always speak

Don't speak my name again
I have become what you won't ever be
Sign your will before you open your mouth
It's the last fucking time that you'll disrespect me

Write whatever chapter you want
Cause I'm writing the fucking book
I may wake with remorse tomorrow
But you won't wake at all

Ass kisser, shit-talker
You became everything we despised
So hear what I say motherfucker
I could give a fuck what you want
I will finally know silence
When your mouth gets sewn fucking shut

No salvation
You motherfucker

I'll nail the lid shut
And leave you buried alive
Ten nails in your coffin
And a nail in each of your eyes
