

We All Burn

Saltwound

This world I desired
Hardened and turned to stone
This child I nurtured
Withered away to bone

We forsake our daughters
And cast our sons to the void
The fires we've set to keep us warm consumes infinite

We all burn alive
In Severance name
We all burn alive
Let the suffering begin