

Silk Lining

Salvatore Ganacci

You look like the sun shining
Skin so soft like silk lining
Your presence is defining
We're both here for company
You look like the sun shining
Skin so soft like silk lining
Oh, who woulda thought
I'd find someone like me
Somewhere out there

You look like the sun shining
Skin so soft like silk lining
Your presence is defining
We're both here for company
You look like the sun shining
Skin so soft like silk lining
Oh, who woulda thought
I'd find someone like me
Like me
Who woulda thought
You'd find someone like me
Somewhere out there

Somewhere out there
I can't believe you found me

You look like the sun shining
Skin so soft like silk lining
Your presence is defining
We're both here for company
You look like the sun shining
Skin so soft like silk lining
Your presence is defining
We're both here for company

Somewhere out there
I can't believe

Somewhere out there
I can't believe you found me
Wohohohoh-oh-oh-oh-oh
Wohohohoh-oh-oh-oh-oh
Wohohohoh
