

Echo

Sam Bailey

Lying beside you
Waiting for the sunrise
We've not said I love you
But I see it in your eyes
No need to be afraid, no
You got my devotion

I thought I've heard you say something in your sleep
Under your breath, come and say it now louder
Say it now louder
Till the words
Echo, echo in my head
They echo so I can hear them again
Say it louder
Say it to me louder
Till the words
Echo, echo in my heart
They echo even when we're apart

Lying beside you
Wonder what you're dreaming
I just wanna tell you
What I'm really feeling
Don't you be afraid, no
Show me some emotion

I thought I've heard you say something in your sleep
Under your breath, come and say it now louder
Say it now louder
Till the words
Echo, echo in my head
They echo so I can hear them again
Say it louder
Say it to me louder
Till the words
Echo, echo in my heart
They echo even when we're apart

It's burning me up inside
This love is hard to hide
I gotta let it out tonight, yeah
I know what I've gotta do
If I wanna feel close to you
To say that you love me too

Louder
Say it now louder
Till the words
Echo, echo in my head
They echo so I can hear them again
Say it louder
Just say it to me louder
Till the words
Echo, echo in my heart
