

It Gets Better Every Day

Sam Bailey

Uuh, yeah
Oh oh oooh

When I first met you boy
I didn't understand
All the feelings that you have for me
The touch of your hand
Well, you told all your friends
That you were playing with my mind
Oh, you better know that peep won't talk
They call it through great vine
They said you can't be trusted
So, I guess I should have know

It gets better every day, oh yeah
You've been lying to me,
Come on,
It gets better every day, oh, yeah
You've been cheating on me
Come on,
It gets better every day, oh, yeah
You've been lying to me,
Come on,
It gets better every day, oh, yeah
You've been cheating on me
Come on, come on

You say you're gonna leave me
And star heading for the door
Well, you turn around and looked at me
You got me wanting more

Yeah, they said you can't be trusted
So, I guess I should have know

It gets better every day, oh yeah
You've been lying to me,
Come on,
It gets better every day, oh, yeah
You've been cheating on me
Come on,
It gets better every day, oh, yeah
You've been lying to me,
Come on,
It gets better every day, oh, yeah
You've been cheating on me
Come on, come on
