

Drowning

Sam Barber

One, two, three

I will find myself walkin' down a road all alone
Just like a rollin' stone
'Cause there's this hope that is burnin' in my soul and it grows
Just like an ocean wave

There's this storm cloud headin' my way
And it keeps on pourin' down tears of pain
Well, this wind stirs up a hurricane
And I'll keep on drownin' as long as you're away

'Cause I am lost amongst these north country stars
Will you find me and lead me on home?
'Cause there's a pain that is coursing through my veins
It's a hurt I've had since I left you

There's this storm cloud headin' my way
And it keeps on pourin' down tears of pain
Well, this wind stirs up a hurricane
And I'll keep on drownin' as long as you're away

There's this storm cloud headin' my way
And it keeps on pourin' down tears of pain
Well, this wind stirs up a hurricane
And I'll keep on drownin' as long as you're away
And I'll keep on drownin' as long as you're away
And I'll keep on drownin' as long as you're away
