

Let Me Down

Sam Barber

You never once let me down
Even after late nights and fighting for middle ground
There was a hole in this house
But we built it back through a love that we both found

There's a waking sun rising in the east
But it's your smile that lights each day I see
Tell me I'm all you need
And I'll be there for every breath you breathe

When I'm down and I'm out, you let me know
The more I search, the more I find this ain't my home
And I've been burned one too many times before
Still, you never let me down

With all the shame that's been thrown my way
You're the only one that stayed true
When I was lost and had no cause
You turned me into something new
If I had a choice between you and my voice
Well, I guess I'd never speak again
If there was a flood with no time to run
Would you hold me till the end?

When I'm down and I'm out, you let me know
The more I search, the more I find this ain't my home
Well, I've been burned one too many times before
Still, you never let me down

Still, you never let me down
Never let me down
Never let me down