

Do Right By Her

Sam Brown

Cold as ice, hot as tea
I love baby and baby loves me
Not so nice now as you and me together
But I'll do right by her though she despises me

I've been caught up in a love affair
Oh yeah
Don't look for me anymore
Cos I won't be there

You ain't gonna Do Right By Her
You ain't gonna do right by me
In the midst of it all the love is lost
You hold the answer in your hand
It's not words of love it's understanding
But you won't do the right thing, cos you're scared of the cost
You're scared of the cost

Sit and wait for years and years
The time's not, right may I still call you Dear?
Baby cries for loves pure kiss
Instead the unkept promise of a never ending bliss

I've been caught up in a love affair
Oh yeah
Don't look for me anymore
Cos I won't be there

You ain't gonna Do Right By Her
You ain't gonna do right by me
In the midst of it all the love is lost
You hold the answer in your hand
It's not words of love it's understanding
But you won't do the right thing, cos you're scared of the cost
