

Loveless

Sam Brown

Something I had known as my muliebrity
The softness of the woman was lost and gone for me
Looking for a feeling that had slipped out of my hands
Like on a beach of pebbles, a single grain of sand

So hold me now, cos all around is Loveless cept for you
And we've lost and found in love but now this moment's all that
's true
No-one moves me like you do

It's predictable I know but I felt like I was alone
You were always with me, I just didn't know
I was trying to cut my bread with the wrong side of the knife
Well you loved me to death and you loved me back to life

So hold me now, cos all around is Loveless cept for you
And we've lost and found in love but now this moment's all that
's true
No-one moves me like you do, no-one moves me like you do
Like you

And if I run from this, the promise of a neverending bliss
Then I will be the fool to even think of losing you

Oh hold me now, cos all around is Loveless and confused
And we've lost and found in love but now this moment's all that
's true
No-one moves me like you do, no-one moves me like you do
Like you
