

Better

Sam Feldt

I know your heart's feeling heavier than most
It's hard to talk when you can't pick up the phone
Feels like it's raining no matter where you go
You know who you are, come out from the dark
It's only timing and time can run away
Oh, all this hiding will never numb the pain
'Cause only crying will take the tears away
So don't fall apart

And every time you try to start a fight
When you lay your head at night
Even when your dreams don't make you right
Just know it'll only get better

So come on, love
I know you try to live again, but you don't
It's okay to be a little bit broke
I know it's gonna hurt before it gets better
Come on, love
I know you choke on every word that you say
It's okay for you to feel this way
I know it's gonna hurt before it gets better

I know it's gonna hurt before it gets better
I know it's gonna hurt before it gets better

So many questions, but you don't wanna ask
'Cause all the answers, they never seem to last
You know your future don't have to be your past
So don't fall apart

And every time you start to lose a fight
When you lie awake at night
And every time you start to wonder why
Just know it'll only get better

So come on, love
I know you try to live again, but you don't
It's okay to be a little bit broke
I know it's gonna hurt before it gets better
Come on, love
I know you choke on every word that you say
It's okay for you to feel this way
I know it's gonna hurt before it gets better

I know it's gonna hurt before it gets better
I know it's gonna hurt before it gets better

Come on, love
I know you try to live again, but you don't
It's okay to be a little bit broke
I know it's gonna hurt before it gets better
Come on, love
I know you choke on every word that you say
It's okay for you to feel this way
I know it's gonna hurt before it gets better
