

Half Litre Bottle

Sam Feldt

It's one of those days as I recall
I found you sleeping on the kitchen floor
A half litre bottle by the sink
Like one you'd always liked to drink

Well all I know is what I saw
I saw you sleeping on the kitchen floor
A half litre bottle by the sink

Oh, brother why
Oh, brother why
Do you, do you lie
Brother why
Oh, brother why

It's one of those days where I could see
My everything, my every hope and dream
I've smoked cigarette [?] the streets

And all I know is all I've seen
The start of you was the end of me
And cigarette stains on my teeth

Oh, brother why
Oh, brother why
Do you, do you lie
Brother why
Oh, brother why
Do you keep it all inside
Do you keep it all inside

Oh, brother why
Oh, brother why
Do you, do you lie
Brother why
Oh, brother why
Do you keep it all inside
Do you keep it all inside
