

Hate Me

Sam Feldt

(I hate me for loving you)

I try to make you happy till I'm sad
You only say you love me when I'm mad
I broke a mirror screaming I hate you
Screaming that I love you, screaming back
I never thought affection hurt like that

Ooh-ooh and it kills me slowly
Ooh-ooh but it thrills, but it thrills

One more night, I tell myself
In the morning run like hell
One more night and then I'll go
But every road leads back to you

I hate me for loving you
I hate me for loving you
I hate me, I hate me
I hate me for loving you

I hate me for loving you

I hate me for loving you

I wanna love you breathless, keep you close
You make my heartbeat reckless, but I like control
And all my friends say that I'm crazy
Tell me that I'm better on my own
I know our story's tragic, but I still read more

One more night, I tell myself
In the morning run like hell
One more night and then I'll go
But every road leads back to you

I hate me for loving you
I hate me for loving you
I hate me, I hate me
I hate me for loving you

I hate me for loving you

One more night, I tell myself
In the morning run like hell
One more night and then I'll go
But every road leads back to you

I hate me for loving you
I hate me for loving you
I hate me, I hate me
I hate me for loving you
