

Magnets

Sam Feldt

I thought that I told you
That was the last time
Can't make up my damn mind
You're too good to lose
You tear me apart
With all of your bullshit
Some reason I can't quit
I just can't refuse

And, uh oh, we're back again, back again
Even though we're tryin', we never win
We're runnin', we're fightin'
And even though we're tryin', we never win

We're magnets, magnets
Pull us apart, pull us apart
And we're coming back again
I'm positive, you're negative
Pull us apart, pull us apart
And we're coming back again

(And we're coming back again)

I thought that I lost you
Holdin' on too tight
I fucked it up last time
But now that we're good
You told me it's better
When we're together
And that's all that matters
And that's all that should

And, uh oh, we're back again, back again
Even though we're tryin', we never win
We're runnin', we're fightin'
And even though we're tryin', we never win

We're magnets, magnets
Pull us apart, pull us apart
And we're coming back again
I'm positive, you're negative
Pull us apart, pull us apart
And we're coming back again

(And we're coming back again)

Can't fault the science, baby, I'm tryin'
I just can't stand it, I guess we're magnets
So, uh oh, we're back again, back again
And even though we're tryin', we never win

We're magnets, magnets
Pull us apart, pull us apart
And we're coming back again
I'm positive, you're negative
Pull us apart, pull us apart
And we're coming back again

(And we're coming back again)
