

Open Your Eyes

Sam Feldt

Hard times, let them go
For two turntables and a microphone
It's the only way that I know, baby
You can dig down, I let it out
Don't be scared to hit the ground
Remember, you are never alone

And oh, you look so beautiful
I won't let love pass me by
And I believe in miracles
Won't you let me open your eyes?

Won't you open your eyes?

Hard times, let them go
For two turntables and a microphone
It's the only way that I know, baby
We dig down, I let it out
Don't be scared to hit the ground
Remember, you are never alone

And oh, you look so beautiful
I won't let love pass me by
And I believe in miracles
Won't you let me open your eyes?

Won't you open your eyes?

Won't you open your eyes?
Your eyes, your eyes, yeah
Open your eyes, your eyes, your eyes
Won't you open your eyes?

And oh, you look so beautiful
I won't let love pass me by
And I believe in miracles
Won't you let me open your eyes?
