

Pick Me Up

Sam Feldt

Darkness comes, daylight goes
You wait forever even if I don't
Summer rain, sleepless nights
In any weather I'm safe inside

Your arms now I'm found
In your arms there's solid ground

When I feel like a castle in the sand
And I fall down, you pick me up again
When I can't find the answers in the wind
And I falter, you pick me up again
When I fall down you'll pick me up again

When I fall down you'll pick me up again
When I fall down you'll pick me up again

From rising sea to setting sun
We'll be together, forever young
In the dead of night when thunder rolls
Crawl under covers and hold me close

In your arms now I'm found
In your arms there's solid ground

When I feel like a castle in the sand
And I fall down, you pick me up again
When I can't find the answers in the wind
And I falter, you pick me up again
When I fall down you'll pick me up again

When I fall down you'll pick me up again

You're all I need
When I can't stand on my own two feet
And I'm on my knees
I know whenever I fall down you'll pick me up again

When I fall down you'll pick me up again
(You'll pick me up again)

When I feel like a castle in the sand
And I fall down, you pick me up again
When I can't find the answers in the wind
When I fall down you'll pick me up
When I fall down you'll pick me up again
