

Post Malone

Sam Feldt

One more drink and one more Bacardi
One more dance at this afterparty
We still going, going strong
Speed so fast, like a Ferrari
We get wilder, like on safari
We still going, going strong

And all of these good things, good things, good things
All we need, good things, good things, good things

Tonight we go all night long
We party like Post Malone
Don't tell me to go-oh-oh
Yeah we are never ever going home
Tonight, ain't nobody kill my vibe
Don't tell me to go-oh-oh
Yeah we are never ever going home (oh-oh-oh)
Yeah we are never ever going home (oh-oh-oh)
Yeah we are never ever going home (oh-oh-oh)
See the ocean there in your eyes
In slow motion, we see the sunrise
We are, we are in our zone
5 AM and we still are rolling
In the deepest of my emotions
We are, we are in our zone

And all of these good things, good things, good things
All we need, good things, good things, good things

Tonight we go all night long
We party like Post Malone
Don't tell me to go-oh-oh
Yeah we are never ever going home
Tonight, ain't nobody kill my vibe
Don't tell me to go-oh-oh
Yeah we are never ever going home (oh-oh-oh)
Yeah we are never ever going home (oh-oh-oh)
Yeah we are never ever going home (oh-oh-oh)
