Simple

Sam Fischer

I get hard to fall in love with, it's destructive
I'm becoming half someone you fell in love with
You wake up impatient, I don't say shit
I just bottle up the side of me that hates it
When did everything become so complicated?
Why does everything become a conversation?
That happens way too often, we keep talking
And don't think about what our decisions costing

But though I smoke too much, drink just a little
You do too when we're caught in the middle
Of our love gone wrong, but even if it'll
Take some time, we'll get back to when it was so simple

Mmh-hm, we'll get back to when it was simple
Mmh-hm

Now maybe things are changing, rearranging
It's been a minute since we both had felt the same here
It doesn't mean we're love-lost, we just honest
I don't worry that we won't find what it once was

But though I smoke too much, drink just a little
You do too when we're caught in the middle
Of our love gone wrong, but even if it'll
Take some time, we'll get back to when it was
Like a rolling stone, the great unknown
Our fingertips barely holding on
But if it's what we want, even if it'll
Take some time, we'll get back to when it was so simple

Mmh-hm, we'll get back to when it was simple
Mmh-hm, yeah-yeah

If our love is our garden
It grows more, we got it
Not all that we wanted
But we got it, we got it
If our love is our garden
It grows more, we got it
Not all that we wanted
But we got it, we got it

But though I smoke too much, drink just a little
You do too when we're caught in the middle
Of our love gone wrong, but even if it'll
Take some time, we'll get back to when it was
Like a rolling stone, the great unknown
Our fingertips barely holding on
But if it's what we want, even if it'll
Take some time, we'll get back to when it was so simple

(We'll get back to when it was simple)
(So simple) yeah (we'll get back to, so) we'll get back when it was simple
(So simple, we'll get back to)
