

Forever, Now

Sam Nelson

You say goodnight
I'm one foot in, one foot out the door
And I'm terrified
Cuz you're everything I'd ever want and more

And all my strength is gone...

In this moment
I'm trying not to
Trying not to blow it
Staring at you staring at me
If I don't kiss you
You'll slip through my fingers
Forever now
In this moment
I'm trying not to
Fuck this up I'm broken
Staring at you, staring at me
If I go in head-first
Ain't no going backwards there's
There's no turning around
It's forever now

Check my teeth
Been chewing on what could I say?
To make you stay?
In the spitting rain
Outside the Waverley café
Like it was yesterday

Stand my shaken ground
God please help me now...

In this moment
I'm trying not to
Trying not to blow it
Staring at you staring at me
If I don't kiss you
You'll slip through my fingers
Forever now
In this moment
I'm trying not to
Fuck this up I'm broken
Staring at you staring at me
If I go in head-first
Ain't no going backwards
There's no turning round
It's forever now

In this moment
I'm trying not to
If I don't kiss you
You'll slip through my fingers
Forever now

I'm trying not to
If I go in head-first
Forever
It's forever now
