Sam Nelson

It's a funny thing
When you love someone
It can give you wings
Just to tear you down, sometimes
The feeling feels like it's not worth it at all
It's a funny thing
When you hate someone
With everything
You've got and then some but
The feeling makes your heart beat so strong

I don't know how much more I can take

To love you
Is to lose you
Again and again
My friend
And I still want you
Like some kind of death-wish
Drive me over the edge
In a perfect wreck
Twisted

It's a funny thing
When you leave someone
You leave everything but then
Everything feels wrong
I miss the nightmares 'cause in my nightmares
I can see you again

And I don't know how much more my Heart can break

'Cause to love you
Is to lose you
Again and again
My friend
And I still want you
Like some kind of death-wish
Drive me over the edge
In a perfect wreck
Twisted

And I hate to need the chaos of it all
To feel so safe in a
In a hurricane
He's a fixer, she's a liar
You're a fuck-up, I'm a hypocrite
But I don't know any other way

To love you
Is to lose you
Again and again
My friend
And I still want you
Like some kind of death-wish
Drive me over the edge

In a perfect wreck
Twisted
