

July

Sam Ryder

Hello July, it's been awhile
Since the sun came out and made you smile
'Cause maybe it went out of style to shine

Hello July, yeah, how you been?
It's so good to feel you on my skin
So maybe I should let you in this time

Been caught up in a hurricane
Been down to hell and back again for July
I can see a brighter day
I can feel a change in the weather, babe
Oh, July

Hello July, I hope you stay, oh yeah
No one but you takes my breath away
It's only cloudy skies and darker days without you

Hello July, you're just in time, yeah
I was drowning, and you threw a light
Gotta miss that old, familiar friend of mine
Hey, oh

We've been caught up in a hurricane
Been down to hell and back again for July
But I can see a brighter day
Yeah, I can feel a change in the weather, babe
For July

July
July
Oh, yeah
July
July
Yeah, yeah

Open up your eyes and see
Open up your eyes and see
Open up your eyes and see
July
Oh, yeah, yeah

Open up your eyes and see
Open up your eyes and see
Open up your eyes and see
July
Oh, baby

Open up your eyes and see
Open up your eyes and see
Open up your eyes and see
July

July (open up your eyes and see)
July (open up your eyes and see)
July (open up your eyes and see)
Oh, baby

July (open up your eyes and see)
July (open up your eyes and see)
