

OH OK

Sam Ryder

Saw you in my neighbourhood today-day
Driving twenty miles out of your way, way
Smiling with his arms around your waist, waist
Hoping that I'm pissed, but I'm over it
Take him every place we used to be, be
Behind your smile, I know it's misery-ry
Imagining the way it felt with me, me
Wonderin' why the flame doesn't hit the same

Ugh
And it's like

Oh, okay, you got yourself a new man
So, you say, "But, we both know the truth, man"
Cry my name when he's all over you
'Cause he'll never, ever, ever, ever, ever love you like I can
Oh, okay, you got yourself a new man
So, you say, "But, we both know the truth, man"
Cry my name when he's all over you
'Cause he'll never, ever, ever, ever, ever love you like I can

Saw you with your new boy at the bar, bar
Everywhere I go, that's where you are, are
Don't know why you gotta try so hard, hard
Hoping that I'm ugh, but I'm over it
'Cause I found truth soon as you walked out
And there ain't no way I could go back 'round
Tell the whole damn world that you've moved on now
With your brand-new toy that you can't put down

Oh, okay, you got yourself a new man
So, you say, "But, we both know the truth, man"
Cry my name when he's all over you
'Cause he'll never, ever, ever, ever, ever love you like I can
Oh, okay, you got yourself a new man
So, you say, "But, we both know the truth, man"
Cry my name when he's all over you
'Cause he'll never, ever, ever, ever, ever love you like I can

Like I can, like I can, like I can
Like I can, like I can, woah-woah
Like I can, like I can, like I can
Like I can, no, he'll never love you like I can
