

Hands Up

Sam Sparro

Don't, don't know
Like it's never gonna change it
Don't, don't know

I can't find, I can't find my words right now
To describe what is really goin' on
I can't mind, I can't mind my own right now
And it's a world of insanity but it's my home

And I can't change it
But I can change myself
No, I can't change it
But I can change myself

Got so caught up in my world
Seems like it's never gonna change at all, no no
I just gotta throw up my hands
Some things are never gonna understand, oh no

Got so caught up in my world
Seems like it's never gonna change at all, no no
I just gotta throw up my hands
Some things are never gonna understand, oh no

Don't, don't know
Like it's never gonna change it
Don't, don't know

I can't find, I can't find my peace of mind
But I can close, I can close my eyes and see
I can try, I can try to read between these lines
All I know is this [?]

But I can't change it
But I can change myself
No I can't change it
But I can change my self

Got so caught up in my world
Seems like it's never gonna change at all, no no
I just gotta throw up my hands
Some things are never gonna understand, oh no

Got so caught up in my world
Seems like it's never gonna change at all, no no
I just gotta throw up my hands
Some things are never gonna understand, oh no

Got so caught up in my world
Seems like it's never gonna change at all, no no
I just gotta throw up my hands
