

Pharma Karma

Sam Sparro

(Why is it so difficult for America to wrap their brains around the back sack?

Corporate America doesn't care about you or your children
You are human community[?] and they are targeting your children)
(America's war on drugs)

Big pharma what's your karma? little Suzy is better
You say you don't wanna harm her
When she comes down are you gonna be around? Around?
Big pharma what's your karma?
Is it really so different selling crack out on the corner
The white man in suits, they don't go down in this time

I've been chasing that feelin'
Just chasin' that feelin'
We're chasin' that feelin'
Now I want more
We always want more
I'm chasin' that feelin'
Just chasin' that feelin'
We're all just chasin' that feelin'
And now we want more
We always want more, hey

Make the call go see the dealer
You know this plan don't curbin' dealers
Oh no this pain, if you can't feel it (feel it)
But he can't eat, he can't sleep
Its too much for and I was too weak
Sayin' doctor, doctor give me the news
Just gimme those blues, just gimme those blues

Feelin'
Just chasin' that feelin'
We're all just chasin' that feelin'
Now we want more
We always want more (yeah)

I've been use in my intervision lately
My intervision is gottin' me all the right path
Now done the math and what I'm askin' get never leys
Tryna get sober fast but I want that feeling there
What about those trenches? Put us all linked ditches
This institutions about to [?]
Fill up prescriptions
And (I) wonder why these kids addicted
Hey why they trippin'? Maybe because all answers always prison
Instead of healin' we need the feelin'

Just chasin' that feelin' baby
Just chasin' that feelin'
Now we want more
We always want more
Just chasin' that feelin'
Just chasin' that feelin'
Ooh chasin that feelin'
And now I want more

We always want more

(A super secret organization like the CIA is going to have secrets
And this sounded too bizzare to be true, yep there it was this treat in a re spective newspaper
The accusation "the crack epidemic which ravages country cities will spread with help from a secret army linked to the CIA")
(Say yes to drugs anytime, any place)
