Sam Tinnesz

It's that look on your face
As you're turning the page
You don't know anymore
I don't know anymore, more
Now we're up in a blaze
Burning down from mistakes
You don't know anymore
I don't know anymore, more

This tower
We're building
Is falling
Crumbling
This tower
We're building
Is coming down

It all fades
It all fades to dust
The both of us
The both of us
It all fades
It all fades to dust
The both of us
Nothing ever last forever...

Are you reading my mind
It's just a matter of time
I can't take anymore
You can't take anymore, more
Leave the ruins behind
There's no sun in the sky
I can't take anymore
You can't take anymore, more

This tower
We're building
Is falling
Crumbling
This tower
We're building
Is coming down

It all fades
It all fades to dust
The both of us
The both of us
It all fades
It all fades to dust
The both of us
Nothing ever last forever...
