

Complicated

Sam Tompkins

I don't need another lady to discover
I know that my path includes my lover
But I'm confused cause I don't see
Why you gotta be so cold to me
'Cause I know
Yeah I know that this girl really needs me

It's so complicated, you're so irritated
But I know that I don't want another lady
You can act so crazy but you're still my baby
But I hope that this thing right here is worth saving

And I feel what you feel so I'll never hurt you on the real
That's the deal, me in this for real
You and I certainly both know that
For you girl I'd kill, this is a thrill
I don't wanna get too dramatic now but I got it girl, I swear

I don't think you get this, I'd buy you any necklace
But I know that you'd wreck it
'Cause girl you're so damn reckless, I know
Oh no, no, no
This shit be so toxic but I can't seem to stop it
The plane's about to crash and we sitting in the cockpit
Oh no

I don't need another lady to discover
I know that my path includes my lover
But I'm confused cause I don't see
Why you gotta be so cold to me
'Cause I know
Yeah I know, that this girl really needs me

It's so complicated, you're so irritated
But I know that I don't want another lady
You can act so crazy but you're still my baby
But I hope that this thing right here is worth saving
