

Faded

Sam Tompkins

Uh, uh, uh

I'll be patient
Usually I'm sick and tired of all this waiting
But tonight I got the time
But when you're faded, you never read the signs
'Cause you're always doing lines
But I'll be here all night
I'll be patient
Usually I'm sick and tired of all this waiting
But tonight I got the time
But when you're faded, you never read the signs
'Cause you're always doing lines
But I'll be here all night, yeah

I'm the man you wanna know
I'ma keep you on your toes
You will never have to struggle
'Cause I'm never gonna ghost
Yeah, I've already shown
Always picking up the phone
I will pick you out the rubble
But you leave me in the cold
Take a little minute on your hotline, I
You ain't got a limit or a deadline, fine
You would rather bill it with a glass of wine
They never be willing to go share your time, nah it's fine
Just my time, don't mean nothing, ain't worth a dime
This is trash, you're so smashed
All this cash for a drink that's dashed
Yeah

You're so vacant, sipping cups that get you faded
Think you're famous and I know I'm out my way
But this is crazy, girl, you do this every day
And I'm fighting all this pain deep inside my mental state
Never wanted you near mine, so, we're crossing all these lines
It was all that mattered, didn't ever cross my mind
Began to question whether I could've seen the signs
This is what I've chosen so I've planned on sticking by

I'll be patient
Usually I'm sick and tired of all this waiting
But tonight I got the time
But when you're faded, you never read the signs
'Cause you're always doing lines
But I'll be here all night

Yo, no long finger attentions mine
Come 'round mine, we can spend some time
Too many sour people like lime
I don't need fake love, nah, I'm fine
Them man's calls and cards decline
Wanna be but they ain't nothing like me, I'm Cut from a different cloth inside
Switch them off but I won't switch sides
Switching lanes but they hitchhike

Switch on a human I dislike
No, it's not very business-like
But I know business bitch's life
Perfectionist, so I writ this twice
Impatient but I'm in disguise
Invasion when I'm with my guys
I can't lie

I'll be patient
Usually I'm sick and tired of all this waiting
But tonight I got the time
But when you faded, you never read the signs
'Cause you're always doing lines
But I'll be here all night, yeah

You never read the signs
'Cause you're always doing lines
But I'll be here all night, yeah
