You can't take me for granted, anymore
Savage, I don't know why you so savage
'Cause girl, you manage
To make me feel like I can't manage on my own
I'm damaged
I don't know how you leave me feeling damaged
Girl

You are the reason why I feel like pausing my life
Why you keep leaving at night?
I couldn't do that
Even if I really wanted to baby

We never argue or fight
You just can't look in my eyes
Post on the gram with some guy
I couldn't do that
Even if I really wanted to baby

Fighting my demons
I push myself way too hard to achieve things
You just come straight to my yard if you need me
But then you don't see me if I'm having problems
You're never there baby

I don't wanna lose your love
I just wanna feel your touch on me
I just don't know what to do with your love
Ooh, ooh
