

On My Own

Sam Tompkins

Ahhh ahh
Ahh ahh ahhh ahh
Ahhhahaha

I didn't know what you was getting up to late last night
When I called your phone
I'm still waiting on an answer
And I'm still sat here at home

I didn't know what you was getting up to late last night
When I called your phone
I'm still waiting on an answer
And I'm still sat here at home

Home on my own
Wouldn't think I'd be sat here feeling broke and alone
This ain't the way I thought my Friday night would go
Just wanna know what you been doing out so long
Cause I don't know

Home on my own
Wouldn't think I'd be sat here feeling broke and alone
This ain't the way I thought my Friday night would go
Just wanna know what you been doing out so long
(Home on my own)
(Ah ah)

I've been looking for you
For a couple days
Been getting so few hours cause you keep me awake
You out with your crew
Why don't you say hey?
What you wanna do
Leave right now or you want me to stay?

You've been taking something
Cause you ain't the same person
This shit's just getting worse and
I'm starting to move on
Fuck this [?] feeling
You're giving me a reason
To take my shit and leave this

I didn't know what you was getting up to late last night
When I called your phone
I'm still waiting on an answer
And I'm still sat here at home

I didn't know what you was getting up to late last night
When I called your phone
I'm still waiting on an answer
And I'm still sat here at home
(Ahh ahh)
