

The Deceiver

Sam Tompkins

I can fake it
I hide my feelings all the time
Smile and brave it
While I'm breaking up inside

'Cause when you wake up
To the tear drops
That seem printed on your face
It's easy to make up
For the sake of
Looking the other way

I know I'm
I'm the deceiver
Trying to please ya
But it just feeds the pain
Oh I'm
I'm the deceiver
Scared to go deeper
Than these shallow games

It's the same shit
That keeps on playing through my mind
But the print keeps fading
So I'm stuck here reading between the lines

'Cause when you wake up
To the tear drops
That seem printed on your face
It's easy to make up
For the sake of
Looking the other way

Oh I'm
I'm the deceiver
Trying to please ya
But it just feeds the pain
Oh I'm
I'm the deceiver
I want to go deeper
Than these shallow games

I can fake it
I hide my feelings all the time
Smile and brave it
While I'm breaking up inside

All the same shit
That keeps on playing through my mind
The truth keeps fading
I don't wanna keep on living a lie

But I
I'm the deceiver
Trying to please ya
Oh I'm

I'm the deceiver
I want to go deeper

I
I'm the deceiver
I'm trying to please ya
But it just feeds the pain
