

then there was one

Sam Tompkins

(Ooh, yeah)
I'm embarrassed
By the things that I said
Things that I did too, you know (Yeah)
I've been careless
I got blood on my hands
The life that we had is dead and gone
Ooh, I'm a fool
For hurting you, ooh

I feel so dumb
I let my ego tell me how to love
Now I'm alone and
Nothing's what it was
I love casinos
But never bet on us
Now were done
Then there was one

(Ooh, ooh ooh)
(Yeah)
I'm not the person you thought that I was
You show me love and I'm just showing you up
A better version of me ain't enough
You told me "I just need to grow the fuck up"
And it's every night I'm working on my own change
Swear I'm ready I need you to believe me
I can't feel rejection again
And I know that you think that we're doomed
And I'm a fool
For hurting you, ooh

But I feel so dumb (I feel so dumb)
'Cause I let my ego (I let my ego) tell me how to love (Ohh)
Now I'm alone and
Nothing's what it was (Nothing)
I love casinos (I love)
But never bet on us (Ooh)
Now were done
Then there was one
(Then there was one)
Ohh
(Then there was one)
Then there was one
(Then there was one)

I feel so dumb
I let my ego tell me how to love
Now I'm alone and
Nothing's what it was
I love casinos
But never bet on us
Now were done
Then there was one
Then there was one
