

Grey Area

Sam Tsui

Find a way through the grey, grey area
Are we just friends tonight?
We can't stay in the grey, grey area,
It's time for black or white

Can't figure out exactly how we stand
Stuck in between two uncharted lands
We're sending signs like I've never seen
Changing our minds, don't know what we mean

Are we off, are we on?
Is it right, is it wrong?
Is that it, is there more?
Are we here? are you sure?
Not enough, or too far?
Do we know what we are?

Find a way through the grey, grey area
Are we just friends tonight?
We can't stay in the grey, grey area,
It's time for black or white
So decide on a side of the line we've been treading
It's okay if the choice is scaring ya
Can't spend another night

In the grey, grey, grey, grey, grey area
In the grey, grey, grey, grey, grey area

These blurry boundaries got me all confused
Who sets the limits, do you choose ? do I choose?
Just need to know which way we're heading here
Is something happening yet? Let's be clear

Are we off, are we on? should I just play along?
Is it right, is it real? Do I feel what you feel?
Not enough, or too far? Do we know what we are?
What we are?

Find a way through the grey, grey area
Are we just friends tonight?
We can't stay in the grey, grey area,
It's time for black or white
So decide on a side of the line we've been treading
It's okay if the choice is scaring ya
Can't spend another night

In the grey, grey, grey, grey, grey area
In the grey, grey, grey, grey, grey area

Looks like we're lost without a guide
Til we can make up our minds
Are we falling in love or just along for the ride?
It's time to decide

Find a way through the grey, grey area
Are we just friends tonight?
We can't stay in the grey, grey area,

It's time for black or white
So decide on a side of the line we've been treading
It's okay if the choice is scaring ya
Can't spend another night

In the grey, grey, grey, grey, grey area
In the grey, grey, grey, grey, grey area
