

This Promise

Sam Tsui

Breathing the moment we are sending out a message
This love
Here for a second
Just to sentence in the story of us
The sentence in the story of us

Your hand in mine
We are burning like two flickering lights
I'll pass this moment
We are flying through the days and the nights flying through the days and the nights

I'm trying to keep
This image I see
I know we can't stay there

But still I believe
That this you and me
Will always be somewhere

Cause I swear

That when forever fades into a memory
Nothing will ever take
Take you away from me
This promise of mine
Is a promise in time

And as we looking back
On who we used to be
With everything I have
I swear you'll always see
This promise of mine
Is a promise in time

Dance till its over
Till the morning breeze
The first ray of sun
Just hold me close
You know the road we're on has only begun
The road we're on has only begun

All the people we've become
And those we've yet to be somehow
I wanna show them just how beautiful you looking through my eyes right now
If they could look through my eyes somehow

I'm trying to keep
This image I see
I know we can't stay there (stay there)

But still I believe
That this you and me
Will always be somewhere (somewhere)

Cause I swear

That when forever fades into a memory

And as we looking back
On who we used to be
This promise of mine

(this promise of mine) [x2]
(this promise)

Cause I swear

That when forever fades into a memory
This promise of mine (this promise of mine)

And as we looking back
On who we used to be
This promise of mine (promise of mine)
Is a promise in time (time)

That when forever fades into a memory
Is a promise in time (this promise)
