

Better Be Lonely

Samantha Fish

I wish, I wish, I wish
You liked me better, but you don't
It's just a kiss, a kiss, a kiss
We ain't together, and I won't

I won't bend all the rules for you
Won't call you in a day or two, uh-huh
Won't let you know it bothers me
To feel this aching jealousy, whatcha do to me

You better, you better, you better
You better be lonely and hungry for my touch
You better, you better, you better
You better be lonely when I come for your love

I-I-I-I-I got the key, the key, the key
To lock you down, won't lock you up (locked up)
You're so free, so free, so free
To run around, but I don't trust (don't trust)

I don't trust you not to break my heart
Not be exactly what you are, uh-huh
Don't wanna cross this line for you
I know it's gonna happen soon, ooh and you know it too

You better, you better, you better
You better be lonely and hungry for my touch
You better, you better, you better
You better be lonely when I come for your love

I'm gonna be there

I say, boy, yeah

You better, you better, you better
You better be lonely and hungry for my touch
You better, you better, you better
You better be lonely when I come for your love
You better, you better, you better
You better be lonely and never get enough
You better, you better, you better
You better be lonely when I come for your love

Hey, yeah
You better
Ooh, yeah
