

Try Not To Fall In Love With You

Samantha Fish

This flirtation feels like flying
A little higher than I should
Two borrowed hearts lost at sea
Floating like driftwood
And I can't ignore, like I did before
There's just so much here to lose, yeah

Oh I'll try, I'm gonna try
I'm gonna try, baby, I'm gonna try
Not to fall in love with you

If the stars align
And we find the time
To make this our own
Until then I can't begin to let this feeling grow

But the night you kept me upright
I remember what is true

I'm gonna try, I'm gonna try
Baby I'm gonna try, I'm gonna try
Not to fall in love with you

My feet are planted
I'm begging for you to make a move
Maybe this won't be so heavy, heavy, heavy, heavy
If you carry it too
Your sweet disposition
I'm in such a position
I don't wanna be your fool
