

Please

Samantha Harvey

I kinda always knew I was gonna be your next ex
I kinda always felt like the one you hadn't left yet
So come and finish what you started
Cause I'm half broken hearted
I'm down I'm not out but I'm here on my knees
Oh you might just shout at least give me the chance to say

Please
I was running as fast as I can
I'm finally breathing you in
And I'm drowning on you, drowning on you
Please
We were over before we began
And I don't think you understand
I've found you now so don't you say it's

Too late, too late, too late now
Too late, too late

I kinda always thought that there was gonna be another last chance
I kinda always hoped we would never ever have last dance
I'm down I'm not out but I'm here on my knees
Oh you might just shout at least give me the chance to say

Please
I was running as fast as I can
I'm finally breathing you in
And I'm drowning on you, drowning on you
Please
We were over before we began
And I don't think you understand
I've found you now so don't you say it's

Too late, too late, too late now
Too late, too late

You kinda left me here like a penny on a train track...

Please
I was running as fast as I can
I'm finally breathing you in
And I'm drowning on you, drowning on you
Please
We were over before we began
And I don't think you understand
I've found you now so don't you say it's

Too late, too late, too late
Too late, too late
Too late, too late
Too late, too late
