

Somebody Else

Samantha Harvey

Your love is sweet
Your love is fine
Your love is beautiful
And your love is mine, all mine

You gave all my love away
And I don't know why
Made you my everything
And now you're not mine, all mine

And I don't know why
You gave all your love to me
Walking the street
The rain feels so bitter sweet
I need someone
To hold me so desperately
I had your love
Now it's for somebody else
Ooh ooh, somebody else
Ooh ooh
Holding the memories of you and me
No place I'd rather be
I had your love
But now it's for somebody else

I could of been blind
When I looked in your eyes
Can't stop shaking
How could you fake it

You gave all my love away
And I don't know why
I made you my everything
And now you're not mine, all mine

And I don't know why
You gave all your love to me
Walking the street
The rain feels so bitter sweet
I need someone
To hold me so desperately
I had your love
Now it's for somebody else
Somebody else
Somebody else
Somebody else
I had your love
Now it's for somebody else

You gave all your love to me
Walking the street
I need someone
I had your love

Ooh ooh
Holding the memories of you and me
I had your love
