

Set Fire

Samantha Jade

I've been thinking about you baby all day, all night
You must be so tired 'cause you've been running through my mind
Got my heart racing skipping beating outta time
I know you feel it too, yeah, I can see it in your eyes

You got that something and I want it
From zero to a hundred
Feeling kinda crazy when you're next to me

Ooh, you set fire to me
With just one look heating up my body
Ooh, you found the light in me
You make me feel like maybe I'm somebody
And I see us alone in the middle of the night
And we're touching and kissing you're holding me tight
Ooh, you set fire to me
With just one look heating up my body
Ooh

Every time you leave me, baby, I wish you'd stay
Falling even deeper everytime you come my way
We got that kinda magic baby it's in the air
No matter where I go I see your face you're everywhere

You got that something and I want it
From zero to a hundred
Feeling kinda crazy when you're next to me

Ooh, you set fire to me
With just one look heating up my body
Ooh, you found the light in me
You make me feel like maybe I'm somebody
And I see us alone in the middle of the night
And we're touching and kissing you're holding me tight
Ooh, you set fire to me
With just one look heating up my body
Ooh

Oh babe, you got what I need
You got what I need
You got everything that I want, baby, this can't be wrong
Oh babe, you got what I need
You got what I need
You got everything that I want, baby, this can't be wrong

Oh, you set fire to me
With just one look heating up my body
Oh, you found the light in me
You make me feel like maybe I'm somebody
And I see us alone in the middle of the night
And we're touching and kissing you're holding me tight
Oh, you set fire to me
With just one look heating up my body
Ooh
