

Subconscious

Samantha James

You make my heart beat dance
I'm intoxicated
I can feel you moving to the song
It's breaking it down
And you'll see I can't take this
'Cause I know this is where I would go

Just waiting to feel your kiss
Rubbing my lips
Your energy is totally on
Now that I'm here in your hands
Help me understand
Take me where you think I would go

With no inhibitions
This intuition, yeah
I hear it coming for you, you, you
Tell me, why don't you get here and [Incomprehensible]

Although destiny has waited
In this physically, I'm aching
Subconsciously
And fly in home to you

Feel that nothing here's deceiving
I believe, oh, I can feel it
Subconsciously
And fly in home to you

I know it's not by chance
You put me in a trance
Your energy is turning me on
It's breaking me down
I will say I can't escape
Because I know this is where I would go

Just waiting to feel your kiss
Touching my lips
Our chemistry is turning me on
Now that I'm here in your hands
Help me understand
Take me where you think I would go

With no inhibitions
This intuition, yeah
I hear it coming for you, yeah, for you

Although destiny has waited
In this physically, I'm aching
Subconsciously
And fly in home to you

Feel that nothing here's deceiving
Subconsciously
And fly in home to you

Although destiny has waited
And fly in home to you

Feel that nothing here's deceiving
Subconsciously
And fly in home to you
