Tree of Life

Samantha James

Awake in the morning
Blinded by light
To me it's just another day
As I wait to sleep at night

But in the meantime
As you hold me tight
So safe and warm you make me feel
When I look into your eyes

You quietly whisper
You speak to my heart
And give to peace and let you breathe
With guidance from above

You are my light
You're the reason I feel alive
And keep believing
My tree of life
You've given me the seeds
I need to grow inside

Your love is so healing
So tender and pure
Sweeter than the touch of love
You're so beautiful

Your love is enchanting
And precious than gold
The only one who really knows
Don't dare to split in my soul

And deeper reflection
Of sunnier days
Seem to show me how it feels
To be in love again

You are my light
You're the reason I feel alive
And keep believing
My tree of life
You've given me the seeds
I need to grow inside
