

The Lie

Samantha Mumba

I remember it like yesterday
Took my heart, captured me instantly
Let's run, get lost in what we'll never be
I know you don't belong to me

I'm not yours
And you're not mine
Laying with him, but I got you on mind
It's fucked up
And it ain't right
But it's something neither of us can deny

We got a situation
Feel like giving into temptation
(Yeah)
It ain't fair, we don't care
Just ready to risk it all
Let me believe the lie that it's only for tonight

If I could go back and change everything
Delete some chapters, switch a couple scenes
I want you more than I want anything
But I know you don't belong to me

I'm not yours
And you're not mine
Laying with him, but I got you on mind
It's fucked up
And It ain't right
But it's something neither of us can deny

We got a situation
Feel like giving into temptation
(Yeah)
It ain't fair, we don't care
Just ready to risk it all
Let me believe the lie that it's only for tonight

We got a situation
Feel like giving into temptation
(Yeah)
It ain't fair, we don't care
Just ready to risk it all
Let me believe the lie that it's only for tonight

Just one touch from you, makes me high
Hold me close, although you're not mine
This game we play, the risks we take, the way we hide
We're caught up baby, this is the lie

We got a situation
Feel like giving into temptation
(Yeah)
It ain't fair, we don't care
Just ready to risk it all
Let me believe the lie that it's only for tonight

We got a situation
Feel like giving into temptation
(Yeah)
It ain't fair, we don't care
Just ready to risk it all
Let me believe the lie that it's only for tonight
Only for tonight
Only for tonight
