Samara Cyn

Hey, hey, hey
Stargazing. I been star chasing-can't get out of my mind
No patience (Got to keep the patience)
Yeah I know, but the souls will intertwine over time, baby
Don't you let them niggas try to fuck up the times, baby
Open your eyes, baby
Stargazing. You been star chasing-can't get out of your mind
Can't get out of your mind mind
(Hey mind mind mind mind)

Pretty like a penny, wanna see me when I go off
Zero to sixty, like a blicky way I pop off
And my momma told me tears wash the soul off
But my momma taught me no time to cry
These other niggas think I'm crazy, I don't hate saying goodbyes
If it's time to cut the ties then (Bye bye)
Don't need no dead weight; long journeys taught me to pack light
Got to float just like a feather if I'm reaching for the skies
I ain't woke, I'm high but my body sanctified
Call for time to give me peace and let its grace come free my mind
Want you paint me like Picasso. This is art, I don't just write
Pray for love; got a love so for you I got no time
But I think you could get me lit; focused on my trip
World in havoc; busting back at pigs trying to get me sick
Get the bread and break it with the team then break it with the six
I don't think I need to score if I'm stacking up on assists
All the gazing gon' put me and my mama on rocket ships
All that chasing gon' keep my pockets cushioned with Benjamins
I ain't say I'm making millions, but it's finally making sense
Started sticking to the track when I started to take the risk
I been I been I been

Stargazing. I been star chasing-can't get out of my mind
No patience. (Got to keep the patience)
Yeah, I know but the souls will intertwine overtime, baby
Don't you let them niggas try to fuck up the times, baby
Open your eyes, baby
Stargazing. You been star chasing-can't get out of your mind
Can't get out of your mind mind
(Know the money coming slow. Spaceship come with 24s)

Getting comfortable with zoning out
Getting comfortable with roaming now
Getting comfortable with not being comfortable
Ain't no telling what bars will do so I set them high
(Fantasize)
Manifest while I'm getting my pitches right
Manifest so I can see it then get it to set my bitches right
Don't wish me well. I see the plans to up the genocide
Sometimes stargazing make me feel like we gon' be alright
Pick a side. Said pick a side
(You can stay and let the chasers pass you by)
Pass you by. Pass you by. Pass you by
Stargazing. You been star chasing-can't get out of your mind
Can't get out of your mind mind
