

Pearl

Sami Yusuf

I spent a thousand sleepless nights
In wait of dreams I could not find
I walked a thousand empty roads
In search of signs to bring me home

With every breath I spoke your name
And heard it rolling in the waves
Beneath a veil of ocean blue
I broke illusion from the truth

You said, walk to me and I'll find you
Call me and I'll show you
Hiding like a pearl for you
To heal and guide you
From deep inside you
Hiding like a pearl for you

Music

And from the pulse beneath my skin
You called me to a source within
Where every layer revealed one more
A secret brighter than before

And at the heart there lay just one
The root of all that I'd become
I watched the surface start to break
Free of form, free of shape.

You said, walk to me and I'll run to you

Call me and I'll show you

Hiding like a pearl for you

To heal and guide you

From deep inside you

Hiding like a pearl for you.
