

On the bowery singin' "Country Roads"
I was outta town when Dymphnas closed
Got prettier in Denver
Phasing out of this old fairy tale
Apple cider vinegar and kale
I'm fit and full as ever

If you want, I can take it off
And show you what my mama gave me

Only getting hotter as I sweat
I have never really been upset
Just hollow and amazing
All I want is to be like my dad
All I want's to give you what I have
I'm generous and vacant

If you want, I can take it off
And show you what my mama gave me
It's so hot
In this restaurant
I might just get fully naked

If you want, I can take it off
Show you what my mama gave me
(The cleaning thing, the tidal creek)
(The murderous bird, her bleeding beak)
(The cleaning thing, the tidal creek)

It's so hot in this restaurant (The murderous bird, her bleeding beak)
I might just get fully naked
