

Monterey Canyon

Samiam

Half a lifetime ago
In my forever dream
The far away places I used to know
Still exist in the morning light

It's only time
And there's a plan
Standing by
Until the end

Four thousand feet below
And I'm fading to grey
I leave my body there for you
No longer resisting the tide

And as I float away
I wonder why
Now I'm not afraid
To say goodbye

To say goodbye

And as I float away
I wonder why
Now I'm not afraid
To say goodbye
