Sky Flying

Samiam

Nothing has divided you
Growing older faster than it should
Pieces of me outside your door

See, you're not at home
I'd like to not wonder where you are
Blurry eyed, my feet will leave the ground

See that sky flying by
See the streetlights spin and blend
Proving it's not a fastest scar

See that sky flying by
See the streetlights spin and blend
Proving it's not a fastest scar

So I'll just leave it there
You could, maybe pick it up
Only you could see what it was

So I'll just lay it to rest
And get up and leave
Knowing you'll see it lying there

See that sky flying by
See the streetlights spin and blend
Proving it's not a fastest scar

See that sky flying by
See the streetlights spin and blend
Proving it's not a fastest scar

See that sky flying by
See that sky flying by

See that sky flying by
See that sky flying by
