

Take Time

Samm Henshaw

All y'all thinkin' 'bout is kissin' and huggin'
And lovin', I just think we gotta take time
All y'all thinkin' 'bout is kissin' and huggin'
And lovin', I just think we gotta take time

I been noticing lately, there's a shift in your wave
Back and forth, these motions make our conversations sway
I just get the feeling that you're too stuck in that space
Think about it, just think about it, ooh, yeah, yeah
If I bought you flowers, made you coffee in the morning
Placed it on that plate so everybody sees me balling
If that means I love you more, if that is all it takes Baby, I would rather wait, oh, yeah

All y'all thinkin' 'bout is kissin' and huggin'
And lovin', I just think we gotta take time (And lovin', I just think we got ta take time)
All y'all thinkin' 'bout is kissin' and huggin' (Ooh, yeah, yeah)
And lovin', I just think we gotta take time

Take a second, let it breathe
Take a minute, baby, just let it be
All y'all thinkin' 'bout is kissin' and huggin'
And lovin', I just think we gotta take time

Yeah, get out your head, it's alright
I know some days we waste all our energy
Caught in the web we weave
Picture perfect moments that we never had, pretending
Think about it, just think about it, ooh, yeah, yeah

All y'all thinkin' 'bout is kissin' and huggin'
And lovin', I just think we gotta take time (Maybe we should take time)
All y'all thinkin' 'bout is kissin' and huggin' (Oh)
And lovin', I just think we gotta take time

Take a second, let it breathe
Take a minute, baby, just let it be
All y'all thinkin' 'bout is kissin' and huggin'
And lovin', I just think we gotta take time, yeah

Look, remember fiending to release my semen
Swear I had a demon underneath my covers
And I remember chasing after hella boxes
With a packet full of extra rubbers
They say palates that don't know good seasoning
Probably prefer their dishes hella smothered
And hell, I ain't different, it was years my kitchen
Ain't have nothin' but gravy in the cupboard
Or cabinet, either way it's clear I was a magnet
For hypersexual somewhat ravenous
Savages described as immaculate, pristine beings

Yeah, it was like this since my mid teens
So I ride this mic, to hype this crowd as love
To those who have sight but can't see
See?

(Flowers, flowers)

Yeah

All y'all thinkin' 'bout is kissin' and huggin'
And lovin', I just think we gotta take time
All y'all thinkin' 'bout is kissin' and huggin'
And lovin', I just think we gotta take time

Take a second, let it breathe
Take a minute, baby, just let it be
All y'all thinkin' 'bout is kissin' and huggin'
And lovin', I just think we gotta take time, yeah

(If I bought you flowers, flowers, flowers
If I bought you flowers, flowers
If I bought you flowers, flowers, flowers
If I bought you flowers, bought you flowers)
