

40 Days 40 Nights

Sammie

Sitting here staring at this photograph
Hate to crack a smile cause it hurts to laugh
Can't believe that it's over our love is so cold now
You were my first now there's no turning back
They say all good things come to an end
But we was suppose to beat it out and last to the end
My bed is so lonely, call me mr lonely
Not only did I lose my lover I lost a friend

Now what in the hell am I suppose to do
When everything I hear and see reminds me of you
Guess I lay down in my bed and just wait
And just stay until this...

Love fades away
Seasons they change
I'm hurting inside
Feels like it's been raining 40 days and 40 nights
Love fades away
Seasons they change
I'm hurting inside
Feels like it's been raining 40 days and 40 nights
Damn...

Looking at my clock damn I can't sleep
Don't wanna see the kitchen cause I can't eat
My stomachs upset babe and I got a headache
From medicine to heal my heart I'm so weak
Wanna call you up but you'll only ignore
But that's the only way I can hear your voice
After all that I bought ya and everything that I called ya
Believe me when I say that I'm sorry for it

Now what in the hell am I suppose to do
When everything I hear and see reminds me of you
Guess I lay down in my bed and just wait
And just stay until this...

Love fades away
Seasons they change
I'm hurting inside
Feels like it's been raining 40 days and 40 nights
Love fades away
Seasons they change
I'm hurting inside
Feels like it's been raining 40 days and 40 nights

I gotta pick myself up it's so bad
I can't even function you were all I had
I'm incomplete without you
Come back with me please lover
I am not the man that I use to be
I'm begging you girl come back to me
I'm goin' down oh baby please

(Ooooh, ohh, ahh, ohh)
(Whooa, ohh, ohh, ohh)

(40 days 40 nights)
(40 days 40 nights, oh)

Now what in the hell am I suppose to do
When everything I hear and see reminds me of you
Guess I lay down in my bed and just wait
And just stay until this...

Love fades away
Seasons they change
I'm hurting inside
Feels like it's been raining 40 days and 40 nights
Love fades away
Seasons they change
I'm hurting inside
Feels like it's been raining 40 days and 40 nights
