

Be Alone

Sammie

Ooooh, yeeah
I, I, I, I, I

I think I have one too many drinks tonight
I told myself that I would slow it down
Be living way too fast for too long now, yeah, yeah
I have one too many girls this week, lost count
Tiffanie, Stephanie and what's her name?
Shit, I'm drowning in pointless sex, I'm so ashamed

When you got money you ain't even gotta try too hard
When you got fame you ain't even gotta say shit
Poppin' on a gram everyday is like a perfect
Told her open up and she oh baby like I'm sensei

I had every girl that I want
But still I found myself always hit and lonely
I think I need some help yeah I didn't worry
Nobody wants to be alone, be alone

I swear I wanna settle down
But the life keeps twirling me somehow
Me while I'm knowing I ain't missing out
Cause I done it all, I had em all, seen it all
But when I think I got it I slip and fall

When you got money you ain't even gotta try too hard
When you got fame you ain't even gotta say shit
Poppin' on a gram everyday is like a perfect
Told her open up and she oh baby like I'm sensei

I had every girl that I want
But still I found myself always hit and lonely
I think I need some help yeah I didn't worry
Nobody wants to be alone, be alone

I had every girl that I want
But still I found myself always hit and lonely
I think I need some help yeah I didn't worry
Nobody wants to be alone, be alone

Laying in my California King bed
I ain't got no one to tell all of my secrets
This girl they do it every time, I'm keep it
Cause I'm tired of doing the same shit
Never leave her who I came with
A different city but the same shit
I'm sick and tired of sleeping all alone
Not having somebody I can call my own
I'm tryna turn my house into a home
But I worried I'mma be alone

I had every girl, that I ever wanted
But I'm still lonely, lonely

I had every girl that I want
But still I found myself always hit and lonely

I think I need some help yeah I didn't worry
Nobody wants to be alone, be alone

I had every girl that I want
But still I found myself always hit and lonely
I think I need some help yeah I didn't worry
Nobody wants to be alone, be alone
