

Why you crazy 'bout him if he ain't crazy 'bout you?
Why you let him back in when you know you gon' lose?
Baby, you deserve much better
You could trade the hell for heaven

Mascara runnin' and your mind keeps racin'
Tequila ain't the only thing you're chasin
Nah, that won't patch a heart that's broke
It's a Band-Aid on a bullet hole

A girl like you should be the center of attention
Not cryin' 'bout a boy to your bestfriend
Nah, you ain't even on his mind
But he's all that's on yours tonight

Why you crazy 'bout him if he ain't crazy 'bout you?
Why you let him back in when you know you gon' lose?
Baby, you deserve much better
You could trade the hell for heaven
Why you crazy 'bout him if he ain't crazy 'bout you?
Why you let him back in when you know you gon' lose?
Baby, you deserve much better
You could trade the hell for heaven

So why you crazy 'bout him? (Yeah, look)

I know your vibe well
I know that attitude just cover up your soft side
I know that pain been followin' you your whole life, well
I'll take the good with all the bad, my love is all time
Baby, listen, you been droppin' them tears for a clown
Hop in the whip and we spin it around
It's been a minute since you let it go
Play your favorite song and you singin' it loud
Girl, I'm lovin' the sound of that
Lost yourself in him, but now you found it back
Me and you gon' take over the town, how that sound? Ah

Why you crazy 'bout him if he ain't crazy 'bout you?
Why you let him back in when you know you gon' lose?
Baby, you deserve much better
You could trade the hell for heaven
Why you crazy 'bout him if he ain't crazy 'bout you?
Why you let him back in when you know you gon' lose?
Baby, you deserve much better
You could trade the hell for heaven

So why you crazy 'bout him?
